

Situation 1

You ask a friend if he is going to university tomorrow:

- Are you going tomorrow?

Situation 2

You go into a store and you ask the vendor if they have any lemons. He is a bit hard of hearing, so he asks back: “Did you say you wanted oranges?”

- No, I said I wanted lemons

Situation 3

Brian needs help moving tomorrow and he needs either your help or your friend Rudy's. You ask your friend Rudy which one of you is going to help Brian.

- Are you going tomorrow?

Situation 4

You get home late after a party. A friend of yours calls you on the phone to check if you got home okay. However, you have bad reception and you are not sure if he asked if you got home or if you got lost, so you ask him to confirm:

- Did you ask me if I got home or if I got lost?

Situation 5

A popular play is in town and there will be performances all week. You ask a friend if he is going tomorrow or some other day.

- Are you going tomorrow?

Situation 6

Tomorrow is your friend Michael's birthday. You and a group of friends have decided to get him a big present. Your sister asks you if you are buying the present, but you tell her it is not you who is going to get it, but Mary.

- No, Mary is going to buy the present

Situation 7

Tomorrow is Mary's birthday. A friend of yours is not sure if he is going or not, so you ask him to confirm if he is actually going.

- Are you going tomorrow?

Situation 8

You asked someone on the street what time it was, but there was a lot of noise. You think that he/she said it was 9 o'clock but you ask him/her again to confirm.

- Did you say it was nine o'clock?

Situation 9

A car was passing by and, once again, you failed to understand. You ask again for confirmation.

- Was it nine o'clock you said?

Situation 10

Answer with complete sentences using the characters' names:

“Mary loves Michael”

Situation 11

You ask a friend if he is going to university tomorrow:

- Are you going tomorrow?

Situation 12

You go into a store and you ask the vendor if they have any lemons. He is a bit hard of hearing, so he asks back: “Did you say you wanted oranges?”

- No, I said I wanted lemons

Situation 13

You get home late after a party. A friend of yours calls you on the phone to check if you got home okay. However, you have bad reception and you are not sure if he asked if you got home or if you got lost, so you ask him to confirm:

- Did you ask me if I got home or if I got lost?

Situation 14

You asked someone on the street what time it was, but there was a lot of noise. You think that he/she said it was 9 o'clock but you ask him/her again to confirm.

- Did you say it was nine o'clock?

Situation 15

A car was passing by and, once again, you failed to understand. You ask again for confirmation.

- Was it nine o'clock you said?

Situation 16

Tomorrow is Mary's birthday. A friend of yours is not sure if he is going or not, so you ask him to confirm if he is actually going.

- Are you going tomorrow?

Situation 17

Tomorrow is your friend Michael's birthday. You and a group of friends have decided to get him a big present. Your sister asks you if you are buying the present, but you tell her it is not you who is going to get it, but Mary.

- No, Mary is going to buy the present

Situation 18

A popular play is in town and there will be performances all week. You ask a friend if he is going tomorrow or some other day.

- Are you going tomorrow?

Situation 19

Brian needs help moving tomorrow and he needs either your help or your friend Rudy's. You ask your friend Rudy which one of you is going to help Brian.

- Are you going tomorrow?

Situation 20

Answer with complete sentences using the characters' names:

“Mary loves Michael”

Situation 21

You get home late after a party. A friend of yours calls you on the phone to check if you got home okay. However, you have bad reception and you are not sure if he asked if you got home or if you got lost, so you ask him to confirm:

- Did you ask me if I got home or if I got lost?

Situation 22

You ask a friend if he is going to university tomorrow:

- Are you going tomorrow?

Situation 23

You asked someone on the street what time it was, but there was a lot of noise. You think that he/she said it was 9 o'clock but you ask him/her again to confirm.

- Did you say it was nine o'clock?

Situation 24

A car was passing by and, once again, you failed to understand. You ask again for confirmation.

- Was it nine o'clock you said?

Situation 25

A popular play is in town and there will be performances all week. You ask a friend if he is going tomorrow or some other day.

- Are you going tomorrow?

Situation 26

Tomorrow is your friend Michael's birthday. You and a group of friends have decided to get him a big present. Your sister asks you if you are buying the present, but you tell her it is not you who is going to get it, but Mary.

- No, Mary is going to buy the present

Situation 27

Brian needs help moving tomorrow and he needs either your help or your friend Rudy's. You ask your friend Rudy which one of you is going to help Brian.

- Are you going tomorrow?

Situation 28

Tomorrow is Mary's birthday. A friend of yours is not sure if he is going or not, so you ask him to confirm if he is actually going.

- Are you going tomorrow?

Situation 29

You go into a store and you ask the vendor if they have any lemons. He is a bit hard of hearing, so he asks back: “Did you say you wanted oranges?”

- No, I said I wanted lemons

Situation 30

Answer with complete sentences using the characters' names:

“Mary loves Michael”